PROJECTS:

Diet & Calorie Tracking Website

- Built a full-stack web app using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and MySQL for meal logging, BMI calculation, calorie goal tracking, with user authentication and real-time calorie calculations
- Designed a normalized MySQL schema to manage user profiles, meal history, and nutrition data with dynamic dashboards

Sterile Instrument Tracking System (RFID-Based)

- Developed an RFID-based tracking system using Python and MySQL to monitor surgical instruments across sterilization cycles with automated expiry alerts and usage logs
- Built a real-time dashboard for live instrument status monitoring, reducing manual tracking effort

RESEARCH PROJECTS:

Breast Cancer Detection using Deep Learning

- Built a CNN-based deep learning model using Python and Keras to detect early-stage breast cancer from medical imaging data, trained on annotated histopathology datasets
- Optimized the model for classification accuracy and recall across benign and malignant categories using labelled medical image data

Bone Tumour Prediction using Deep Learning

- Developed a CNN-based classification model in Python to identify benign and malignant bone tumours from medical imaging data.
- Trained and evaluated the model using labelled datasets, optimizing for precision and recall across tumour categories
